

All For Your Hug

I'd just like you to know, my Special Friend, what I would do your hug to receive.
You'll find me going to very great lengths.
You are extremely important to me.

To experience your love I'd walk barefoot on a rough gravel road for a mile with my hopes set on nothing more than a hug and your beautiful, captivating smile.

To be sure our friendship is still intact
I'd swim the great ocean, battle the sea, climb a tall iceberg, and cross a fiery pit
in hopes that I'd find you smiling at me.

And if you have any troubles, feel any pain,
find that you have tribulations to bare,
don't hesitate for a second to call on me;
know assuredly that I am someone who cares.

This is only to tell you, my Special Friend,
I want you to know and fully believe beyond any doubt, without any fear that you mean more than the world to me.

*To my Special Friend, Elaine,
Friends only forever, from Wes*
